Buy, sell and own a vehicle with Bumper.com

AT A GLANCE

Founded in 2020, Bumper.com, is on a mission to bring vehicle history reports and ownership up to speed with modern times. A vehicle is one of the most expensive purchases you'll likely make, and you deserve to have access to the same tools and information the pros use to make the right decisions.

Key metrics

Even if you're the owner or seller, a VIN number search is beneficial. If you're trying to sell, a search may give you an idea of what you can realistically expect to get for your vehicle.

THE CONSUMER DILEMMA

If you've ever purchased a vehicle history report, you might have experienced sticker shock. According to J.D. Power, car buyers spend a minimum of three months researching vehicles before purchase. At an average of $30 a report, you could spend upwards of hundreds of dollars simply researching.

COMPREHENSIVE REPORTING

Our vehicle records come from government agencies, insurance providers, car industry sources and more. From accidents and salvage records to vehicle specifications and market value, if a record exists, we'll do our best to find it so you have reliable, up-to-date information.

Accident, salvage and theft records

Titles, liens and

THE BUMPER.COM DIFFERENCE

Unlimited vehicle history reports

With Bumper.com, you can run unlimited reports for one low cost. With that extra savings, why not put it towards a down payment or even upgrades.

Vehicle monitoring

Until now, running a vehicle history report was not easy. Introducing: Bumper.com. Go ahead, set up alerts and be the first to know when something changes with a vehicle you're monitoring.

Research, buy and sell

Bumper.com's platform provides consumers with valuable data about a car's history but also helps connect them to dealerships when they find a car they love. Car owners can also get free instant offers on their junk or salvaged car, regardless of condition!
